RAILROAD NOTES.

Work has been started on the new freight house on the Pomeroy property at Madison.

The switches, frogs and rails for the new freight yard have arrived and the company plans to have part of the tracks laid and the yard paved with Belgian blocks before winter sets in. Blocks and paving stones are already on the ground.

The work of laying the switches and tracks for the new freight yard is under way. The stone blocks for paving the wagon spaces have been unloaded on the ground, the side walls of the freight house are rapidly nearing completion.

Railroad men alone the line of the Lackawanna are discussing the remarkable run last Friday by Benjamin Locke, an engineer of Montclair, in covering the distance between Hoboken and Scranton, Penn., 147 miles, in 150 minutes. James Fuller, a New York business man, wished to reach the bedside of his father, who was critically ill, in Scranton, and made arrangements with the company for a special train of an engine and one passenger coach to convey him there. From Hoboken to Washington, N. J., sixty-seven miles the time consumed was just sixty-seven minutes, and the entire trip, allowing for a stop for water, was made at the same rate of speed. Mr. Fuller reached his father's bedside just before he died.

Amendments to Game Laws.

At a meeting of the Essex County Fish and Game Protective Association on Thursday night, measures of importance to fisherman and gunners were framed. They were then referred to the legislative committee, and will be put into proper form to be brought before the Legislature this winter. One of the bills will provide for the prohibition of quail shooting for a period of five years. Another will limit the woodcock season in conformity with that of quail and partidge under the present law.

FALL WEDDINGS

ZELIFF-BURNETT

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Roland C. Burnett, of Pine street, was on Wednesday the scene of a very pretty wedding, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter, Mary Van Cleef, to Harry Zelfiff of this town, but formerly of Lincoln Park. The house was beautifully decorated with palms and smilax. At seven o'clock the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," played by Miss Minnie Hotchkiss. Under a bell of smilax and roses the bride party was met by the Rev. Ralph B. Urmy, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who performed the ceremony.

Miss Alice Boniface was bridesmaid and little Miss Frances Ventres, of Brooklyn, the flower girl. The groom was attended by his brother, Seymour Zelfiff, of New York. Lowell Zelfiff, of Lincoln Park, and Charles Ventres, of Brooklyn, were the ushers.

A reception was held and refreshments were served by Day. Many relatives and friends were present from Darien, Conn., Brooklyn, Lincoln Park, Pompton Plains, Madison and this town, who joined in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Zelfiff long and happy years of married life. On their return from a short wedding trip they will reside at 33 Pine street.

AMMERMAN-MCDAVITT.

A pretty wedding was that of Miss Georgietta McDavit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. McDavit, of Dover, to William Ammerman, of Morristown, at the residence of the bride's parents on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Richardson under an arch and wedding bell. The bridesmaid was Miss Myrtle McGraw a cousin of the bride, of Peekskill N. Y., the best man was C. S. Ammerman, of Morristown, a brother of the groom. The ushers were William McDavit and Sidney Vogt, of Dover and E. W. Tiger, of Morristown.

The bride was dressed in white silk and carried bride roses. The bridesmaid was also attired in white and carried pink roses. Following the ceremony a collation was served, and the bride and groom were the recipients of many presents. They left on an evening train amid a shower of rice on a wedding tour. On their return they will reside at 146 Pequannock street Dover.

MILLER-O'REILLY.

Miss Mae O'Reilly, daughter of the late Dr. J. H. O'Reilly, was married to William A. Miller, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., at her residence on Madison street on Wednesday evening. The Rev. William V. Dunn, a classmate of the bride, officiated. Dr. Harry M. O'Reilly was the best man and Miss Marie Nolan, of New York, a cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have gone on a wedding tour, and on their return will reside in Wilkes-Barre.

GANNON-MCNAMARA.

Francis Gannon and Miss Mary McNamara were married at the Church of the Assumption on Wednesday morning, Father Dolan officiating. Following the ceremony a breakfast was served at the groom's home in the Hoffman Building, after which they departed on a wedding tour.

SMITH-MILLER.

Theodore Smith and Miss Ella Miller were married at the Parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church on Wednesday evening, the Rev. R. B. Urmy officiating. They were attended by Charles Smith and Miss Harriet Smith, brother and sister of the groom. is the steam of business; better fire up! Advertising is the lubricant of business; better oil up! Advertising is the alarm clock of business; better wake up!

Then, the question is:

Don't you think the paper with decidedly the greatest bona fide circulation can give a business more ginger than a stale and indolent medium ever could?

Look over the columns of The Jerseyman or The Morris County Chronicle and see how local merchants know how to answer this question. Don't forget there's a reason.
